

10 ONLINE BUSINESSES YOU CAN START WITH $50 OR LESS IN 2020

There are many online businesses that you can do but most of them require lots of capital and most times, people try to enter without this capital and they find it hard to progress, then they buy lots and lots of courses and shiny object tools without Success.

You might have been in that shoe in the past year; I don't want the same issue to come to you again, that is why I made this list and also a little bit of information on how you can do them for less than $50.

Starting A Blog :

Starting a Blog requires you to have a domain name (website.com) and also your website host. But most web hosts require you pay for a year which can cost you above $100 but I will show you how to get everything done for less than $50. You can use these options and they will work quite well. >> Use blogger.com and buy a domain name: You can use blogger.com as your host and use one of there free templates and then get a domain name from godaddy.com or name.com or namecheap.com for less than $15 per year. You can use the rest of your <$50 budget to design cover images and logos and use free traffic methods. >> Use Wordpress.com and a Domain name: Wordpress.com have different paid plans but they also have a free plan that you can use with your blog and there are lots of free themes to use in the Wordpress.org marketplace that will make your blog look good and then get a domain name from godaddy.com or name.com or namecheap.com for less than $15 per year. You can use the rest of your <$50 budget to design cover images and logos and use free traffic methods. >> Use Namecheap.com or lpage Shared Hosting: Namecheap.com and lpage offer a year hosting that are less than $50 and they give free domain also and you can design does cover image and logo with Canva or get someone to do it on Fiverr for $5 or $10. Then after starting your blog, you will need to monetize it too, are there ways of monetizing your blog on <https://tipkingdom.com>

Sell Premium Domains:

This requires little money, but a bit of time. You do research and buy expired domains and simple domains that you think people would love to get and turn around and sell it to them. You can buy a domain for $12 and sell it for $500 or more depending on the demand associated with the domain. Since your budget is $50, you can buy multiple domains and these methods do not require any marketing; your buyers message you themselves.

Develop an App, Software, Theme, or Plugins:

This method deals with you getting a developer or programmer who is willing to build your app and get paid after you sell or started selling the app. Most Programmers are afraid of this because of commitment but If you can get someone to build an app for the idea you had there are lots of free marketplaces to sell your App

Affiliate Marketing:

This method requires you getting people who love to buy a product buy it through your Link. Since you are just starting up, you won't have a List and then you need to build a website for list building. You can refer to Number 1 above to learn how to set up your blog for less than $50. You can go to forums like blackhatworld other MMO forums to advertise products for free especially under blog posts where you can offer help to people and then buy your products.

Start A Review Site:

Lots of websites use this method but one of the best ones you can start is getting approved to promote Aliexpress, Amazon and eBay products and you can write articles for household items you know about and link a purchase button to them and you get paid. Starting a Review site can also be done with Number 4 above. You need to do SEO (Search Engine Optimization) so everyone looking for more information on the product can see your websites for free.

Sell A Single Product:

Lots of people start dropshipping without knowing they need a lot of capital to run ads and design a website, but a better method is to select a winning product. You can check out ecomhunt.com for great products, then you start promoting using Instagram and the sweet thing about Instagram is that you can run an ad to the product image and sell on the platform with less than $5 per day. With this method, you can buy the product and then send it to them or you can use a similar model to Dropshipping.

Trade Forex:

This method can make you a millionaire in a short time and also make you go broke in a day. So this method requires you to tread with caution and keep all your senses ACTIVE. You can start trading with less than $50 but you need to find a working method that is sold for $10 or a bit more and then you can learn more about forex from <https://babypips.com> Trading Forex means trading currencies against currencies and you can also trade other materials like gold etc. If you try this method and it does not work, please stop.

Self Publish a Book on Amazon:

This method works, and I have seen lots of people raking in thousands of dollars with this method. This method requires you to write a book and people buy it, but then you are not a writer so we need to figure a way out for you to get your book done. You can get a designer on Fiverr to design an ebook cover for you $10 and you also get a writer on fiverr.com to write the ebook for you. This method works great because Amazon will promote the book for you free of charge.

Create A Digital Course or Tutorial:

This a Sure way of making money, especially if you know an area a lot of people are looking forward to learning more of. Sure markets are Making Money niche, Health and Fitness, Investments and Food Markets. There are lots of platforms to sell your courses and examples are udemy, teachable, thinkific with the latter offering a free plan to sell. Udemy is also great but you will need to price your course low to go with the competition or you create a super great course and sell it has a high ticket. You need to know the market before you go ahead and record videos and you don't necessarily need a camera to start. You can start by recording with your Laptop, especially if it is a Digital tutorial where you are showing them your screen and use Powerpoint to create some cool and easy animations. With this, you might not spend more than $20 to design the cover/images for your tutorial

Freelancing:

You can freelance whatever skill you have platforms or skill marketplaces like fiverr.com, freelancer.com, upwork.com, toptal.com, and many more. You can freelance digital skills like Writing, Programming, Designing and many more. This method requires just your skills and your PC. I have made thousands of dollars monthly consistently using this method so it works forever.
